Pumping Station Replacement Deemed Town's 'Dire Need'

By Sue Aucella Deacon

Andover cannot wait any longer for state and federal funds to build its long-delayed Riverina Road sewage pumping station, the Public Works director said Monday night, calling the station "the most dire need of this community."

An equipment failure at the existing station early Monday morning led to a sewage back-up. DPW Director Robert McQuade told the selectmen, which forced several Shawsheen Village businesses to close and led to the discharge of waste directly into the Shawsheen River — a violation of state and federal regulations.

The DPW director proposed a special article for town meeting approval, seeking a $6.7 million appropriation to fund a new pumping station.

Town meeting will be presented three alternatives: $3 million for a pumping station, $2.7 million for a force main for a new interceptor to the existing outfall sewer in Lawrence, or $6.7 million for both the station and force main.

Town officials have been seeking state and federal funding for a new pumping station for several years, and during the past year McQuade said he has "exhausted every possibility" for government funding. "It appears to me funding won't be available."

Design and engineering studies for the Shawsheen Village plant have been completed for some time, and if town meeting approves the project in April, construction could begin in July, according to the director.

Town Manager Kenneth Mahony told the selectmen town funds for the pumping station would not come from taxes, but from increased sewer fees. He noted that the station would not go on line (nor would fees be increased) for at least three to four years.

The manager added that he would continue to pursue government funding; the special articles are written to allow town funds to be used in combination with U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and state funds.

The DPW discovered that sewage was backed up at the Riverina Road station at 5:30 a.m. Monday, McQuade said. The back-up closed a number of Shawsheen businesses for at least part of the day, including the Andover Companies and the Hardy Brush building, as well as the first floor of the Balmoral condominiums, he said.

DPW crews found that a motor in one of the station's two pumps was wet, and the pump could not be operated. The station was on line again by 9:30 a.m., McQuade said.

The failed pump was pulled for repairs on Tuesday, leaving the station running on one pump. There are no auxiliary pumps at the station.

Selectman Donn Byrne asked about the possibility of buying an auxiliary pump, but McQuade said he had investigated that idea and found it would be "very expensive and impractical." A stand-by pump capable of

Before you pay your taxes for 1983 one of the most logical deductions you can make is to open a BayBanks IRA. You can contribute up to $2,000, and deduct that contribution on your 1983 Federal income tax return. So you'll pay less in Federal taxes. And your earnings are tax deferred until retirement when you may be in a lower tax bracket.

Better still, BayBanks offers you a full range of investment alternatives. From variable or fixed rate time deposits to our new Brokerage IRA, which allows you to invest in securities and manage your own retirement funds.

You can even use our free IRA worksheet to see how much a BayBanks IRA can save you in Federal income taxes. Just visit any of our more than 200 BayBanks offices. Or call the BayBanks Hotline 1-800-342-8888.

Presidential Registration Deadline

With the deadline for registering to vote in Massachusetts' presidential primary approaching, the town clerk's office will be open extra hours during the next week to accommodate townspeople who wish to register.

Town Clerk Elden Salter reports that his office in the new municipal administration complex on Bartlet Street will be open from noon to 8 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 11, and from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. on Tuesday, Feb. 14, the deadline for registration. (The office will be open from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. on weekdays as usual.)

Those wishing to register should bring in proof of residency, such as a rent receipt or utility bill, the town clerk says.

Voters in doubt about what party they are registered in should also check with the clerk by the Feb. 14 deadline, Salter adds, since it will not be possible to change party registration beyond that date, or at the polls on primary day.

Report Cards To Be Issued Wednesday

Secondary school students in Andover public schools will receive their report cards next Wednesday, Feb. 15.

According to acting Assistant Superintendent Dr. Richard F. McGrail, report cards will be distributed directly to students at Doherty Junior High, West Junior High and Andover High School on that date.

School Board Accepts Resignations

The School Committee approved two resignations during a meeting at the Sanborn School Tuesday night.

Committee members approved the resignation of Alice Friedenson, a West Junior High School mathematics teacher, effective Feb. 10. The teacher, who has been employed by the school department since September 1980, is moving out of state.

And the committee approved the resignation of Andover High School junior custodian Kenneth McGuire, effective Jan. 27.

Snow Removal Crews Win Plaudits

The selectmen had words of praise for the Public Works department this week, but the DPW director had a bit of bad news — not entirely unexpected — for the selectmen.

Chairman Gerald Silverman Monday night told DPW Director Robert McQuade his crews have done a "fine job" on snow removal this winter, and Selectman Donn Byrne added that he has heard "a lot of compliments about the snow fighting this year."

McQuade replied that with several weeks of winter still ahead, his department has already exceeded its current budget for snow removal overtime ($21,000) and rental equipment ($175,000).

Not to worry, however: If more snow falls, the DPW will ask the Finance Committee to approve an emergency transfer of funds into its account. "It happens every year," McQuade said with a shrug.

Sen. Buell Concerned About Aid Distribution

Given the Governor's recently-proposed local aid funding for Fiscal Year 1985, Sen. Robert C. Buell (First Essex and Middlesex) thought it might be interesting to compare what the communities in this area are receiving as the bottom line figure from their cherry sheets and, further, to contrast these amounts with the aid being received by the City of Boston. "In light of the fact that the new mayor of the City of Boston finds himself in a precarious position left him by his predecessor, he is seeking an even larger increase in state aid than that which Boston already has received," Buell pointed out.

The senator reported that for the current Fiscal Year 1984, the Town of Andover's per capita net cherry sheet funding from the state was $151.73 and the neighboring community of North Reading received $204.22 per capita. In comparison, the city of Boston received $479.15 per capita.

"While Andover and North Reading comply with assessing property at full and fair cash value, and each can accurately pinpoint its number of full-time enrolled students and its total population, the City of Boston on these items is suspect and not totally accurate," said Buell. "The reason for our concern is that these three items, to a large extent, determine the amount of state aid that goes out to cities and towns," he explained.

Buell said that for Fiscal Year 1985, Dukakis has proposed, under the category of additional assistance, per capita increases of approximately $5 for Andover, $17 for North Reading and 447 for Boston.

Miss Weidman Assists In Vermont Program

Wyoming as the first state to allow women to vote.

Pamela B. Weidman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Weidman, 89 Haggetts Pond Road, Andover, is one of 85 St. Michael's College (SMC) students working with underprivileged children in the Burlington, Vt., area. They are participants in the Big Brother/Big Sister volunteer program sponsored by St. Michael's College in Winooski, Vt.

The Big Brother/Big Sister program is a student-run campus organization providing companionship for Burlington-area disadvantaged children between the ages of five and 12. According to Alison Lote, program coordinator, student participants are matched with needy youngsters and are expected to keep in touch on a weekly basis. The children are referred to her by participating Burlington grammar schools and by the local Children's Aid Society.

The Big Brother/Big Sister organization sponsors several events during the school year. Fall events included a gym and swim day at which the students and children were introduced, a Halloween party and a Christmas party complete with Santa Claus and gifts. A sledding party, puppet show and Easter egg hunt are being planned.

The weekly, and sometimes more frequent, contact between each college student and "adopted" sibling has led to lasting relationships of real value to both. Contact is maintained through informal shopping trips or other outings or simply through phone calls as well as through the group activities in which all big and little brothers and sisters participate.

The Big Brother/Big Sister organization is funded through the St. Michael's Student Resource Center as part of the student-run volunteer services program. Volunteers participate in a number of programs aiding Chittenden County individuals and institutions. These include playing volleyball with inmates at the local correctional center, attending a training program and answering phones at the area Rape Crisis Center, providing companionship and entertainment to residents of the Green Mountain Nursing Home and helping at the local Ronald McDonald House and Adult Basic Education Center.

St. Michael's College, founded in 1903 and headed by President Edward L. Henry, is Vermont's largest Catholic, liberal arts and sciences institution. The four-year, coeducational college has an enrollment of 1,600 undergraduate and 500 graduate and International Student Program students.

Kaleidoscope Changes Location

Kaleidoscope's presentation of the Mystic Paper Beasts, originally scheduled this Saturday, Feb. 11, for the auditorium of West Elementary School, Andover, has been moved to the auditorium of West Junior High School, a short distance away on Shawsheen Road, Andover. The performance will begin at 1:15 p.m. and last an hour. This is the third event in Kaleidoscope's winter performance series for children ages 3-12.

The Mystic Paper Beasts from Stonington, Conn., is a troupe of masked performers who are well-known in theatrical circles of the world. They have been praised by critics worldwide for their extraordinary ingenuity and entrancing creatures.

Saturday's performance will be "Circus Genesis," a history of the circus from its earliest days to modern times. The show includes more than 40 brilliant masks, mind-bending stunts and fabulous dance stories.

Irvine Graduates

Julia Ann Irvine, daughter of Horace Irvine of North Andover, received a bachelor of arts degree with a major in physics from Colorado College.

Colorado College is an independent liberal arts college founded in 1874, with a current enrollment of 1,850. It is located in Colorado Springs, Colo.

The first state agriculture department was instituted in Georgia in 1874.

Because of the change of location, additional tickets will be available at the door or may be reserved by calling Janis Baron, the director. (Children under three not admitted). Subscribers and current ticketholders will sit in a reserved section, while all other tickets will be on a first-come, first served basis.

LWV Focuses On National Issues

The Leagues of Women Voters of Andover, North Andover and Methuen will hold a combined consensus unit on national security at Memorial Hall Library, Andover, on Wednesday, Feb. 15, at 7:30 p.m.

The information presented will deal with military policy and defense spending and is the second part of a two-year study adopted at national convention in 1982. Nationwide, leagues will be coming to consensus on possible military missions which might be fulfilled by nuclear and/or conventional military forces. Options presented will be: to defend the homeland, to defend allies, to defend vital resources or to maintain capability to respond to conflicts around the world.

Another question deals with the triad of strategic nuclear weapons and asks members what the United States should do with each of the components, air, land or sea. Should it eliminate, reduce, retain as is or modernize?

The role of the U.S. in Europe will discuss the policy of "first use" of nuclear weapons as well as its reliance on conventional forces.

Members will be asked to make value judgments on what portion of the U.S. defense budget should be spent on investment and what on readiness. Investment includes the procurement of new nuclear and conventional weapons systems, research and development and military construction while readiness includes operations and maintenance, personnel and retirement pay.

Agreement/disagreement and comments will be solicited on this statement: "National security has many dimensions and cannot be limited to military policy alone. It can be defined as ensuring domestic tranquility, providing for the common defense and promoting the general welfare. Key elements include the country's ability to implement social and environmental programs and to maintain cooperative relationships with other nations. Other important components are effective political leadership and a strong economy. Therefore, in decisions about the federal budget, political leaders should assess the impact of U.S. military spending on the nation's economy and on the government's ability to meet social and environmental needs."

All league meetings are open to the general public as well as league members. However, consensus will be decided by members only since the position reached will determine the lobbying positions taken by league members and lobbyists.

The position reached after the first year's study was announced last December and includes arms control objectives of limiting and reducing weapons, prohibiting first use of nuclear weapons with a long-term goal of worldwide elimination of nuclear weapons.

A portion reads, "The LWVUS approves the following arms control actions: support the bilateral, mutually verifiable freeze on the testing, production and deployment of nuclear weapons to be followed by reductions. Support of the merger and resumption of the START and INF negotiations. Support for a comprehensive test ban treaty. Opposition to development of any space weapons that would violate the antiballistic missile treaty. Support for negotiations to prohibit deployment of satellite weapons."

In the event the weather prevents holding the meeting on Wednesday evening, it will be held the following evening at the same time and place.

Gourmet Cooking Workshops

The Department of Community Services offers courses designed for cooks. Victoria Anderson has taught a variety of gourmet delights in past years and will offer four different workshops this year.

Quiche will instruct how to make several different varieties of quiche using the original flaky pastry recipe. There are two sessions of this workshop: one on Tuesday, March 13, from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. at the West Junior High and one on Tuesday, April 3, from 9 a.m. to 12 noon at the new senior center.

Create a Crepe is for people who love crepes and would like to create their own, using fruits, vegetables and meats as fillings. The workshop date is Tuesday, March 20, from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. at West Junior High.

Preparing and serving a gourmet rabbit will be the subject of a workshop on Tuesday, April 10, from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. at West Junior High.

The first session of a croissant workshop on Tuesday, March 6, has been filled. Another session has been planned for Tuesday, April 24, from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. at West Junior High.

Spaces are still available in all of these workshops. For further information, contact the Department of Community Services.

Celebrity Series Begins At College

Arthur R. Miller of "Miller's Court" will appear at Northern Essex Community College on Friday, March 2, kicking off the Tri-College Celebrity Series.

This is a first-of-its-kind series for the Merrimack Valley and involves NECC, Bradford and Merrimack College, all of which are working together through their alumni offices.

Alex Haley, noted author of "Roots," will appear March 23 at Bradford College Denworth Hall, followed by Edwin Newman, television correspondent for NBC-TV, on April 27 at Merrimack College's S. Peter Volpe Physical Education Facility. All three events will begin at 8 p.m.

Miller's topic, "The Death Penalty," is especially timely in light of the numerous electric chair executions that have taken place in recent months. Miller will act as prosecutor and defense and will play devil's advocate with a "jury" comprised of people from the Merrimack Valley and the college communities.

A professor of Law at Harvard Law School, Miller is nationally known for his work on court procedure, copyright, unfair competition and remedies and for his work in the field of the right of privacy.

However, he is most recognized by the public as the challenging theatrical host of WCVB-TV's "Miller's Court" and as law commentator of ABC-TV's "Good Morning America."

Haley served in the U.S. Coast Guard for 20 years and began a new career in 1959 as a free-lance writer specializing in interviews with headline-making personalities. He began a long, intensive research into his maternal family history, tracing his genealogy back some 200 years and six generations. His book, "Roots," is a result of this research and it became one of the biggest best sellers as well as a popular TV mini-series.

Newman has reported on a wide range of topics in the field of broadcast journalism during his 28 years as an NBC news correspondent. He has reported from 35 different countries, narrated documentaries, anchored specials on late-breaking news events and covered seven sets of political conventions and four world's fairs. He has earned a reputation as a watchdog of English usage, writing two books on the subject,

"Strictly Speaking: Will American be the Death of English?" and "A Civil Tongue," both of which were national best sellers

Historical Lecture Thursday

"History's Chosen Workers: the New England Mill Girls in the 19th Century" is the theme of a lecture on Thursday, Feb. 16, at 8 p.m. at the Andover Historical Society, 97 Main St.

Robert Weible, historian for the Lowell National Historical Park, presents research on the girls' mill experiences in context of their own lives. He tells how mill work changed the outlook of the farm girl and puts into perspective the legacy of these girls' experiences in today's world. Weible's presentation also offers opportunities to hear of current programming developments at the Lowell National Historical Park.

Weible received his training as an historian at Penn State University (BA) and the University of Rhode Island (MA). He has been a staff historian in Lowell since 1979 and has published numerous articles on Lowell and its industrial past.

This program is part of a series offered to members of the Andover Historical Society and their guests. While this local history museum and library offers numerous public programs and services, it nevertheless relies heavily upon the financial and volunteer support of its membership. Membership dues are applied directly toward the general operating budget of the Andover Historical Society. In return, members receive the satisfaction of supporting an institution dedicated to local service. They receive a quarterly local history newsletter, invitation to eight special lectures or open house events and notification of all museum or library programs, both public and membership. All persons interested in local history, antiques, collectibles or support of local services are welcome to join the Andover Historical Society, a non-profit organization open to both members and public. For information on open hours, exhibitions, tours, special events and membership, call the society office Monday through Friday, open 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Northern Essex Awarded Training Grant

Northern Essex Community College, Haverhill, has been awarded a $17,130 grant from the Lawrence Department of Training and Manpower Development through the Job Training Partnership Act, 8 Percent Educational Coordination Program, to operate a "College Bridge Program."

The program seeks to expand a model of working with disadvantaged individuals in assisting them to continue their educational efforts, particularly at the post-secondary level. Forty-five participants will be served.

The program begins February 13 and runs through June 29. It seeks to accomplish three major goals:

1. In collaboration with Lawrence High School, provide 25 disadvantaged youth with basic academic and vocational information to encourage the youth to finish high school and perhaps continue their education and, when appropriate, assist them in obtaining good jobs.

2. In collaboration with social institutions such as the Lawrence YWCA, provide 20 economically disadvantaged, predominately Hispanic adults with GED training and a college credit course in Basic Bookkeeping.

3. Help develop a formal network within Lawrence between schools, businesses and social institutions to address the employment and educational needs of economically disadvantaged, predominately Hispanic population in the area.

In establishing this program, a network will be formed between the JTPA system (Lawrence Department of Training & Manpower Development and JTPA program agencies), NECC, Lawrence High school, several businesses within the Lawrence area and social institutions within the city. Companies committed to work with the program are Arlington Trust, Hewlett-Packard, Gould-Medicon, Lawrence Eagle-Tribune, Digital Equipment Corporation, General Ionex, Polaroid Corporation, Knight Tool Company, Inc. and Finelle Industries.

These companies will provide tours of their facilities and make presentations to participants. Representatives from Arlington Trust, Digital Equipment Corporation, Finelle Industries and the Lawrence Eagle-Tribune will serve on the program's advisory committee.

In addition, Lawrence High School will provide classroom space and accessory materials (desks, blackboard, etc.), administrative and counseling staffs; Lawrence YWC will provide classroom space, counseling for displaced homemaker participants; Massachusetts Office for Children will provide a counselor one day per week for the length of the program; and Family Service Association of Greater Lawrence will provide counseling services and supervision of a psychologist.

"Maria of Sesame St." Comes To Andover

Maria of Sesame St.

"Maria of Sesame St." is coming to The Collins Center for the Performing Arts on Saturday, Feb. 11, and local youngsters can't wait. Area children, like children across the country, are looking forward to that magical moment when their old friend, Maria, appears on stage.

"It's absolutely incredible the affection they have for me," says Sonia Manzano who has created the role of Maria for more than ten years. "They know me immediately and we just swing right into the 'Sesame Street' routines as if it were the most natural thing in the world."

Parents looking for a special Valentine surprise for their children couldn't do better than this show which is educational, affectionate and just plain wonderful. As one parent put it, "the smile of delight on my daughter's face was even more than I had bargained for. I think the show meant as much to me as it did to her."

The American Children's Theatre Touring Company, including several local students, will also be featured in the production. A Valentine party, Valentine card from Maria and a surprise gift from Big Bird for three lucky children are all part of the audience-participation performance.

The demand for tickets will surely exceed the limited seating available. To avoid disappointment, parents should make immediate reservations by calling the box office. Mastercard and Visa are welcome.

Tickets are available at the Collins Center Box Office, Shawshen Road, Andover, daily from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., Andover Savings Bank, Main Street, Andover, and "Just for You," 36 Main St., Andover.

Orchestra, Dance Concert, At Academy

Phillips Academy will present an evening of music and dance on Friday, Feb. 10, at 7 p.m. and Saturday, Feb. 11, at 8 p.m. in Cochran Chapel.

The Academy Chamber Orchestra, under the direction of William Thomas, and academy dance students of Cristina Rubio and Carolyn Brecher will combine their talents in works of Saint-Saens, Bartok and Vivaldi.

The concert will begin with Camille Saint-Saens' "Carnival of the Animals," a musical diversion scored for two pianos, flute, clarinet, percussion and strings. It is a group of short musical works depicting the characters, both succinct and comic, of various animals. The narration, a series of poems by Ogden Nash, will be presented by Philip Zaeder, Protestant chaplain and instructor in English at the academy. The choreography has been done primarily by students of Rubio and Brecher.

Second on the program is Antonio Vivaldi's "Concerto in A Minor for Two Violins and String Orchestra." Soloists, Joy Clendenning and Peter Eliopoulos, are seniors at Phillips Academy. The second and third movements have been choreographed by Brecher.

Bela Bartok's "Rumanian Folk Dances" will conclude the concert. Bartok's great interest in the Balkan folk traditions manifests itself throughout many of his works. The "Rumanian Folk Dances" is one of the clearest examples of Bartok's skill in combining his folk song research with classical western traditions. Choreography is by Rubio.

The public is invited. A donation will be requested at intermission.

Dr. Joseph T. Kelley, professor of religious studies at Merrimack College, will direct "Loneliness: A Christian Response" a seminar on pastoral counseling, on February 9 in the faculty dining room on the second floor of Gildea Hall at Merrimack College in North Andover at 7:30 p.m.

This seminar is the first in a three-part series which is part of a new program in pastoral counseling sponsored by the National Center for Young Adult Ministry located at the college.

Dr. Kelley will address the questions: How does a Christian deal with loneliness? Do Christian faith and theology offer psychological insight into this basic human experience? and How can we deal with the temptations that come in the desert of loneliness?

A second seminar titled "Self-Esteem and Self Image: Gifts of Grace" will be presented March 22.

Dance Group Gets Grant

The Arnold Dance Foundation (ADF) of Andover received an award from the Massachusetts Council on the Arts and Humanities to operate a cultural resources program in the Ingalls Elementary School in Lynn. ADF was the only dance organization in the Northeast region to receive a state award.

The cultural resources program combines state and federal education funds for awards to state cultural organizations that have proven effective educational programs and are equipped to work within school districts to integrate their programs into the curriculum for future long-range benefit.

The performing company of ADF, Becky Arnold and Dancers, will be in residence at the school through May 25 working with grades 1-3 and giving training to the teachers in movement techniques for classroom use in the regular subjects of reading, language arts, social studies, mathematics, art and music. Basic body movement training, spatial exploration and rhythm development will be done with the children and a final program built around the theme, "Love Around the World," will be presented by the targeted grades in late May.

Since 1980 The Arnold Dance Foundation has produced dance education programs in schools, senior citizen centers and local art festivals in Andover, North Andover, Newburyport, Georgetown and Peabody. Last April ADF sponsored Dance Week in Andover and a lecture and film series at Memorial Hall Library. The dance company appeared at the Collins Center dedication ceremonies in September and Becky Arnold has been choreographic consultant to Andover High School's Madrigal Show Choir, directed by Keith Gould.

Information on the educational programs is available by calling the foundation.

Doherty Jr. Happenings

By Matt Corbett And Steven Mencis

There has been much activity going on at Doherty the past couple of weeks.

The Student Council recently opened the "Warrior Store" and school supplies have been sold, including Warrior pennants, pencils, pens and book covers.

A very successful sleigh ride was held at Bruin Hill Farm on Friday for the ninth graders who met at Doherty at 6:30 and took buses to the farm.

A successful eighth and ninth grade dance was held two weeks ago. The theme was "Valentine's Day." Winners of the dance contest were Ryan Murphy, Peter Barry and Karen Gangi.

The Student Council is planning a "Tag Day" for the entire school on Valentine's Day. A dance for the seventh graders will be held on Valentine's Day.

The Parent Advisory Council is sponsoring a discussion about substance abuse and peer pressure for the students and their parents at Doherty tonight. Howard Shalter, Ph.D. of Harvard Medical School will speak in the cafeteria at 7:30 p.m. We are looking for a big turnout.

The Student Council will show a movie, "The Outsiders," in the auditorium on March 9.

The boys' basketball team continued their winning streak on Friday, Feb. 3, by beating Tewksbury 62-27. High scorers were Chris Colia and Mark Tucker with excellent defense by Mark Russell, Mark Needham and Mike Klinger. The bench gave their best offensive and defensive game of the season.

The girls lost their first game to Dracut last Wednesday 32-27. Many of the Doherty girls scored baskets.

Alzheimer's Discussion

Alzheimer's Disease will be the topic of a program designed to promote understanding of the emotional, physical and financial implications for the patient and family at Lawrence General Hospital (LGH), Lawrence, on Wednesday, Feb. 29, at 7 p.m. The program is primarily aimed at nurses. Faculty for the course will be Ruth Holzapfel, from the Merrimack Valley Support Group for Alzheimer's Disease, and Joyce E. Russell, RN, BSN, MEd, LGH director of education.

"Alzheimer's Disease interrupts passage of signals from cell to cell resulting in memory loss, confusion, speech impairment and personality changes," Russell said.

It is important for family members and friends to understand those stages and the things they can do to help the family member afflicted with Alzheimer's Disease," Russell continued.

To register or for more information, contact the LGH education department.

LGH is approved as a sponsor of continuing education by the Massachusetts Nurses Association, which is accredited as an approver of continuing education by the Eastern Regional Accrediting Committee.

To Present Bible Story

"Hurry On Down," a music version of the Biblical story of Zacchaeus, will be presented by children of South Church on Sunday, Feb. 12, at 7 p.m. The story tells about the transformation of Zacchaeus, the tax collector, in Luke 19, when he met Jesus. The production will be especially for children and the community is invited. Photos clockwise from upper left: Joshua Russo as Zacchaeus, the tax collector, asks Jesus, played by Matt Lavin, to forgive him; Praying around the table are Lucas Lavin, Holly Parker, Jennifer Tupper and Kirstin Nowell, children of Zacchaeus, Molly Campbell as his servant, Julie Cutler as Zacchaeus' wife and Joshua Russo as Zacchaeus; the story tellers and vocal soloists are: first row, Amy Zimmerman, second row, Stephen Schmidt, Laura Brink and Vanessa Ackley, third row, Kevin Dresse and Erik Tupper; The Citizens of Jericho rejoice the transformation of Zacchaeus.

For Those Of Us Who Are Older

The Andover Senior Center has moved to its new home in the Town of Andover Municipal Center. All town offices moved to the new quarters in the old East Junior High building over the February 3 weekend. The senior center is located on the first floor of the Whittier Street side of the building. There are no stairs to climb to enter the building and parking is plentiful, so why don't you drop in for a visit.

The senior citizens' lunch program will move to the new senior center in the coming weeks. Watch this column for details. When the lunch program moves, lunches will be served at 12 noon. We also plan to have a speakers program for you to enjoy after lunch. Until the move, lunch will be served at the Doherty Junior High School cafeteria at 1:45 p.m. Reservations must be made by calling 470-3830. If you have trouble reaching us on this line, let us know as

Memorial Hall Library

"The Man who Loved Children" by Christina Stead is the subject for discussion at the Morning Book Discussion Group at Memorial Hall Library on Monday, Feb. 13, at 10 a.m.

Locke's "Of Civil Government," the second treatise, is the subject of the Great Books Discussion Group at their meeting on Tuesday, Feb. 14, at 7:30 p.m. Both groups welcome new participants at any time.

Artist Of The Month
The acrylic paintings of Charles H. Chamberlain of Hampton, N.H. are on display at Memorial Hall Library for the month of February. Chamberlain's style, although influenced by some of his New England contemporaries, is basically self-taught. His medium is acrylics on masonite and his subjects, abandoned barns, rustic still lifes, wind-battered fishing shacks, are discovered by exploring the quiet back roads and dramatic shorelines of New England. His paintings are appropriately framed in hand-crafted weathered barnboard reflecting the same exacting detail captured on the artist's canvas.

Chamberlain's work can be seen each summer in art shows from Camden, Maine, to Mystic, Conn. One of the best shows, he says, is Andover's own Art-in-the-Park.

Birdwatching In Your Living Room

Serious birdwatching is not for the faint of heart; dedicated field study means rising before dawn, facing wintry winds etc. Now comes a video cassette with adjustments are being made to the new town phone system.

The first party at the new center has been scheduled for Wednesday, Feb. 22, to celebrate the 252nd anniversary of the birth of the father of our country, George Washington. A luncheon, featuring baked chicken, ziti, tossed salad, dessert and beverage, will be served at 12 noon. Music for your listening and dancing pleasure will follow the luncheon. Tickets are on sale through February 17 for only $4. Seating is limited so avoid disappointment and get your tickets early.

The hands clasping the heart with the crown superimposed was the traditional wedding ring of this tribe denoting Fidelity, Friendship, and Love.

Robert L. Merrill

Two Andover residents will seek election as members of the Massachusetts Republican State Committee.

Robert L. Merrill, 57 Cross St., will seek the committeeman's post while Kimberley A. Cronin of Punchard Ave., will seek the committeewoman's position for the Second Essex and Middlesex District which includes Precincts one through five in Andover, plus Lawrence, Tewksbury and Billerica.

The state committee decides party policies as well as recruiting candidates for elective office.

Merrill states that he is running for this position to bring more attention to this district at the state level, to continue the re-birth process of the responsible and conservative Republican Party and to be active in the support of outstanding Republican candidates.

Merrill is currently a member of the Andover Cable Advisory Committee and the chief of Andover's Auxiliary Police. He has served as vice chairman of the Finance Committee and as a Task Force chairman for transportation and communications during the Master Plan revision. He has been treasurer of the Andover Republican Town Committee since 1976.

At a recent gathering of Republican friends, Merrill said "That there are many people who vote and think as Republicans who have not joined the party. Recent elections and polls show a strong shift to responsible and conservative demands on public office holders. Our national leadership has proven time and again that the voting strength of this nation follows those conservative values that have stood the tests of time. This is an important time to reach all these people at the local level and, with them, build a strong representation in Boston and Washington. It is particularly vital to insure the long-term future of the party by attracting new voters who already show a dramatic swing to conservative values."

In announcing her intentions, Cronin stated "The Republican Party in Massachusetts is on the verge of a renaissance. In order to achieve that, I intend to work toward electing the type of Republican leader who is needed in the 80s. We need leaders who believe in maximizing the resources provided by our taxpayers to achieve efficient, effective and compassionate government."

Cronin commented that "It is time for a young leader who is committed to strengthening the party."

Cronin, a Boston University graduate, was the 1982 Republican nominee for State Representative for the 17th Essex district. She has served as a Washington intern as well as worked at the Northeast-Midwest Congressional Coalition. While with the Coalition she was a listed contributor to both the "Guide to Federal Energy Programs" and "Budget Analysis Series: Response to the President's Budget." At present Cronin is an accounts executive for the American Red Cross Blood Services where she is responsible for developing blood programs in the northeast region of the state.

Voting for the Massachusetts Republican State Committee seats will be held on March 13. This is the only vote for this four-year office.

Committee Approves Shawsheen For Early Childhood Center

By Sue Aucella Deacon

The Shawsheen School will open its doors to students once again next fall, but not, as in the past, to pupils in kindergarten and on up through grade six.

Instead, the school will become an early childhood center, housing 350 students from all of Andover — 302 kindergarteners, 36 readiness students and 12 early childhood students — to be taught by 11 teachers.

The School Committee Tuesday night voted to open an early childhood center at the Shawsheen in September because, committee members said, using the school that way would sidestep the need for redistricting, and open up "exciting" educational possibilities as well.

Committee member Susan Poore cast the only opposing vote (the motion passed three-one, with Donald Robb absent), saying the committee had not addressed the long-term needs of the community.

And the plan is not "educationally sound," she added, because it will not solve existing problems at the South School.

A number of South School parents, along with parents from other school districts, spoke against the early childhood proposal during a nearly three-hour discussion at the Sanborn School.

But other parents told the committee they favored the early childhood center as an alternative to a kindergarten-through-grade-six neighborhood school at the Shawsheen.

Led by acting Assistant Superintendent Lois Haslam, school administrators summarized a 51-page report they had prepared comparing the two alternatives, a K-6 school and an early childhood center. The school committee had asked for the information last month, after voting unanimously to support the concept of an early childhood center.

The administrators recommended opening Shawsheen as an early childhood center, citing as a major advantage the creation of a much richer learning environment for young students. The children's developmental needs would be better met with an entire building and staff focused on early childhood students, Haslam and early childhood education specialist Linnea Gershenberg said.

They added that all early childhood teachers would be grouped together at the center, enabling the staff to "pool their collective expertise" by training and planning together, sharing materials and providing small group instruction.

And potentially, the Shawsheen center could include space for an all-day kindergarten, a day-care center, and extended-care enrichment programs, the administrators added. They noted that many Andover parents want such programs, which could become a source of revenue for the school department.

The administration also presented information on using the school for kindergarten through grade six — including four possible redistricting plans.

While each plan would reduce the populations at the existing four elementary schools, none would free enough spaces to provide consistency of services at South. There would still be no space for the art and music rooms and two learning labs that would be available in each of the other elementary schools.

Consistency of services could be achieved at South under the early childhood center plan, but only by moving one of the school's two special education classes to West Elementary. (The K-6 plan would require moving South's two special education classes to West Elementary, but consistency of services would still not be reached.)

According to administrators, the neighborhood school would also cost more to open than the early childhood center.

Fire Chief Requests Four Additional Men

Andover's fire chief would like to add four new firefighters, replace one ambulance and buy a fire car — plans vetoed by the town manager in a "nickel-and-dime" approach to the town's fiscal '85 budget.

Chief William Downs Monday night told the selectmen he had hoped to hire four firefighters this year, and requested a personal services budget of $1.81 million to pay for the new personnel.

But Town Manager Kenneth Mahony has recommended instead a personal services budget of $1.77 million for the department.

The current personal services budget is $1.65 million.

However, the manager noted that two firefighters will be added this year, with one expected to join the department this week. The other two positions will be added as soon as possible, Mahony said.

Hiring two firefighters at this time has been delayed not by funding, but by civil service listings, the manager said. (Chief Downs noted that the current civil service list is now three years old.)

Downs had also requested $50,000, to replace a 1976 back-up ambulance (at $40,000), and to buy a fire car (at $10,000). The town manager has recommended turning down that request.

While it would be desirable to replace the ambulance — so that the 1980 ambulance now in use could be relegated to back-up status — waiting one more year would mean a savings of 25 percent over the normal four-year lifespan of an emergency vehicle, the manager said.

The town budget is in a "nickel-and-dime situation," Mahony said, and he had arrived at his recommended $1.77 million town operating budget by "cutting wherever we can."

Selectman Donn Byrne said he would like to discuss the fire budget recommendations at a future meeting. The selectmen did not vote on any budget recommendations this week, but reviewed the requested appropriations for several departments.

Cabbage Patch Pageant

A pageant that attracted 50 entrants and 200 onlookers was not for Miss Merrimack Valley or even Miss Andover but for the Cabbage Patch Doll closest dressed look-alike contest sponsored by Andover's Community Services Department. 'Parents' of the dolls ranged in age from four months to 12 years and wore anything from an everyday dress to a bunny costume. The judges chose a finalist in most lovable doll and closest look-alike between doll and parent categories. Entries in the look-alike category were judged on the basis of clothing, not physical features. Taking first place was four year-old Beth Marie Carriere, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Carriere of Chandler Road and her doll, Josselyn Damitia. Both wore yellow dresses and featured dimples and long brown pony tails. Photos clockwise from upper left: Nine year-old Elizabeth Juliano of Essex Place displays her doll, Billie-Jo, as onlookers paraded by; With Easter not far away, Anneli Finn, 12, of Argilla Road dressed herself and her doll, Tyson Henry, to fit the coming occasion; Lee Webster, 12, of Sunset Rock Road and her doll, Charlene Minnie; Pamella Greenwood of North Andover takes her position for the judging with her four month-old daughter, Julie Anne, and the baby's home-made doll, Amanda Faith; Paul Clinton, member of Community Services Committee and one of the three judges, views the contestants.

The Shawsheen Decision

To The Editor Of The TOWNSMAN:

We find your editorial concerning the proposed use of the Shawsheen School rather obsequious in a town of citizens who cherish their democratic heritage. What is "inordinately premature" about asking for discussion of an issue that may affect the educational and budgetary situation of the town after one reads in the newspaper that a decision has already been tentatively made?

In addition, your comment about the concerns of townspeople opposed to a hasty decision as being "minute and self-serving" contradicts your own editorial statements which acknowledge the validity of almost all those concerns mentioned in a published statement given to the school committee by that group on January 24, 1984.

But, now the issue. We do not clearly understand why converting Shawsheen School to an early childhood center is a better option for the town than returning it to its original use as an elementary school. The only apparent reason is that the conversion would make classroom space available to each elementary school for computers and music instruction. Our predicament is that we just have not been told.

If the reason turns out to be based on economics, we have serious reservations. Could such a change be reasonable in light of Mr. Mahony's recent announcement of major, necessary increases in the towns' budget due to long-deferred maintenance projects? Much of the $20,000 he mentions that would be necessary to convert the Shawsheen to an early childhood center could logically be saved if the school was returned to its original use as an elementary school.

Mr. Mahony also points out that a $50 a year tax increase could be called for over a five-year period to cover the overall budget increase due to maintenance needs. Remember that our school committee, which you choose to conclude is omniscient, told us a few years ago that to save money we could cut the number of bus contracts ferrying students to and from school. How can the town accept or the school committee recommend transporting students to Shawsheen from all over town to an early childhood center in Shawsheen. We can see no economic wisdom in such a decision.

Another crucial issue that you mention but give short shrift to is school construction. Let's be reasonable and state the issue clearly for the town. Do we want to be forced to build a new elementary school in three or four years because the Shawsheen, having been converted into an early childhood center, no longer has an application as an elementary school? Maybe you simply consider this issue "minute and self-serving." I doubt your readership does.

After examining some of the available present and projected school population figures, we are incredulous at your statement regarding classroom overcrowding. The "forecast" you allude to, coming from the superintendent's January report to the school committee, assumes the addition of five teachers to the elementary staff to avoid overcrowding, but the report also assumes that the school population will remain basically the same during the 1984-85 school year as it was in January 1984. Given the town's population growth, one need not stretch the truth to assert that we will probably need more money for more staff even after the five teachers are added. In September, West Elementary School, for one example, has had to make provision for almost 100 new students. A question remains: Can we channel town money into an early childhood center if we may need that money when faced with the future dilemma of overcrowding elementary classes or hiring more teachers?

Another issue bearing on this decision concerns children and busing. We do not agree with you that children can become acclimated to new environments quickly. Generally, children find breaking relationships and forming new ones difficult. Some children may recover after a short time; however, many do not.

Not only do we feel the long bus rides are a problem, but also the transfers, we suspect, students will have to endure along with the attendant waits. Direct routes to the Shawsheen in the early morning and late afternoon may be impossible, in most cases requiring students in a district to transfer from one bus to another at the local elementary school in order to complete the ride to the early childhood center.

Finally, and maybe most importantly, parents of children in readiness have traditionally been told that one fundamental assumption of the program is that readiness students would be coupled as much as possible with first graders to allay any potential feelings of student failure. By separating readiness students from first graders at an early childhood center, that fundamental assumption is destroyed and we suspect the program will suffer as a result.

For us a public airing of our concerns was called for after your editorial. Converting Shawsheen into an early childhood center could have very important educational and economic consequences. The only demand we are making on the superintendent and the school committee is that the questions posed in this letter, and any others citizens may want to ask, be answered before a final decision is made.

Down The Years With The Townsman

75 Years Ago — February 1909

Miss Anna M. Dawes, a daughter of Senator Dawes, was a guest at the Abbot academy from Friday till Monday. On Saturday afternoon, she spoke to the girls on "Eleven Presidents I Have Known," giving interesting glimpses into the social life at the White House during nearly 50 years.

The forthcoming town reports will make a number of things very clear to citizens of the town. It will show, for instance, that practically every department in the town service has expended all the money appropriated for it at the last town meeting. It will show that several of the departments have been unnecessarily overdrawn. It will show that the town is not unlike all other governments, national, state and municipal, in the grasp that extravagance has upon it.

Seldom has the Town hall presented a prettier scene than it did last Wednesday night, when the members of the Andover club and their friends gathered there for the club's first annual ball. The decorations were especially pretty. Green and white was the general color scheme used throughout the hall, and streamers in those colors were carried from the chandeliers across the hall and along the walls in graceful loops and folds.

50 Years Ago — February 1934

Thirty-nine articles will be included in the annual warrant, it was revealed last night when closing time for filing the articles arrived. Many are for water extensions, but there are also a few unusual requests. The pump question is to again come before the voters, with the Board of Public Works again asking $7,000 for an electric pump and William F. Barron and others asking $20,000 for a steam pump, presumably a turbine. The B.P.W. is again requesting $23,000 for a new reservoir.

The possibility of the town's securing a grant for its school project was greatly strengthened this week when it was announced that President Roosevelt intends to ask Congress for an additional appropriation for the Public Works Administration. There are about 6,400 projects in the same class as Andover's, involving about $2,900,000,000. Despite depletion of the public works' fund, the P.W.A. has continued receiving applications at the rate of 300 a week.

Problems to be faced with an enlarged enrollment next year, the possibility of having to eliminate baseball this spring, the need for new reference books at the school library, and the difficulties in adjustment in the freshmen class are all treated concisely in the annual report of Nathan C. Hamblin, principal of Punchard high school.

25 Years Ago — February 1959

Andover's tax rate will hug the $26 level in 1959, based on recommendations now being completed by the Finance Committee. While cutting out all items of "fat" from the department budgets, Chairman Robert Watters revealed that almost every necessary, requested expenditure has been approved. The chairman emphasized that no reductions in wages have been recommended.

Everyone is invited to attend the Andover TOWNSMAN's open house Friday, from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., at the Andover Colonial Center, 166 North Main St. The new TOWNSMAN offices, located on the second floor of the Center, have been specially designed for the efficient production of Andover's own weekly newspaper. As far as is known, the offices are the only ones specifically set up for the production of a weekly

Naming Buildings

To The Editor Of The TOWNSMAN:

Mr. Doherty's letter was both interesting and informative. It is most relaxing to go back into the past and imagine the town the way it used to be. Andover has grown and changed so rapidly that keeping the Punchard name and remembering Clara Putman, one of the town's dedicated teachers, is one way of mixing the old with the new and not losing touch with the past completely.

Town Hall Use

To The Editor Of The TOWNSMAN:

I read with interest the article by William Doherty on uses for Town Hall.

I would like to take it one more step. Andover has four garden clubs, a junior garden club, artist guild, two drama groups, a needlework group, coin and stamps and newly formed herb society. The Town Hall can supply a permanent home for the above with space for workshops, courses and the hall for exhibits. This gives Andover the opportunity to view or participate in the arts.

I would be very interested to learn how the other arts feel about a permanent home at Town Hall?

JACK ANDERSON AND JOE SPEAR

WEEKLY SPECIAL

Justice wants to know if porn turns kids into criminalsBy Jack Anderson and Joe Spear

WASHINGTON — The Justice Department official in charge of juvenile justice, Alfred S. Regnery, appears to have some curious ideas about the causes of and cures for delinquency.

At his Senate confirmation hearings, Regnery advocated harsh punishment for juvenile offenders. He used to display a bumper sticker that asked: "Have you slugged your kid today?"

Last October, we reported that Regnery wanted to spend $500,000 to test young boys for criminal tendencies. According to the project proposal, the initial test group would have been made up of 2,000 boys aged 9 to 12 "who have had their first contact with the police."

The kids were to be checked for such physical characteristics as lefthandedness, "malformed ears, low-set ears, asymmetrical ears, soft pliable ears, no ear lobes, high steeped palate, furrowed tongue, smooth tongue with rough spots, curved fingers, wide gap between first and second toes, and third toe longer than the second."

Our disclosures blew up a storm of protest and Justice Department officials beat a hasty retreat. Now Regnery is proposing to spend $800,000 on a project to evaluate the reactions of children to pornography. The researchers who proposed the study want to determine the biological, hormonal and neurological responses of juveniles as they read sexually oriented magazines and watch pornographic films.

The findings are supposed to help the researchers figure out whether exposure to pornography will cause juveniles to become criminals.

According to the proposal, the researchers would fan out across the country and collect "media scenarios" that depict "murder, mutilation, bloody confrontation, adolescent, inter-generational and promiscuous sex, individual and gang rape, sexual battery, incest, child sexual abuse, sadism, forced anal/oral copulation, etc."

An "expert team" of specialists will then examine the materials to determine whether they cause "juvenile delinquency, runaways, teenage pregnancy, mayhem, rape in gangs or as individuals, murder, alcohol and drug abuse, pederasty, child prostitution ... incest, rape, torture ... mutilation."

A Justice Department official insisted there would be no experiments conducted on children. Such data is available, he said, from studies that have already been conducted.

Who submitted children to these pornographic tests? The official acknowledged that some of the experiments may have been financed by the federal government.

POOR PLANNING: When

two Navy jets were downed while conducting bombing raids in Lebanon last December, U.S. officials insisted the mission had been well-planned and executed and that the losses were "acceptable." But we have spoken to military experts who recently returned from the Middle East, and they say the raids were a tactical disaster. Here's why.

— The aircraft were launched from carriers in the Mediterranean Sea, within sight of a Soviet intelligence vessel and a warship. The Soviets certainly alerted the Syrians and they were laying in wait when the U.S. planes showed up.

— A specialized electronic warfare escort jet, designed to jam enemy radar, was not used on the mission.

— The planes ran short of flares (used as decoys for heat-seeking missiles) and "chaff" (shreds wrapped in plastic that are used to confuse enemy radar).

— The planes spent too much time over their targets in an apparent effort to avoid hitting innocent civilians. But this noble gesture came to naught when one of the downed jets crashed into a coastal town and injured seven bystanders.

EXECUTIVE MEMO
During a General Services Administration auction of surplus boats, a collections officer took in about $95,000 in cash. But when she went to deposit the money, she came up $1,710 short. Under the rules, she was compelled to make up the loss out of her own pocket. Her employers determined she was not at fault, but the General Accounting Office, which reviews such matters, overturned the ruling on the grounds that the circumstances surrounding the loss were "sufficient to raise a presumption of negligence."

— The president's Middle East envoy, Donald Rumsfeld, receives home-to-office transportation in government automobiles when he is in Washington. Usually, such service is provided only for high-level officials who live in the Washington area, but the State Department put in a special request for permission to provide transport for Rumsfeld. It was granted, even though Rumsfeld stays in a hotel suite when he is in the capital.

UNDER THE DOME: Sen. Orrin Hatch, R-Utah, believes the Democrats are speaking through their hats about the possibility of fielding a women vice-presidential candidate this year. "They'll talk about it a lot," he says, "but they won't do it."

— Sen. Howard Metzenbaum, D-Ohio, says that his "first failing is the ability to remember jokes and my second is the ability to tell them."

Awards
Grants

The Massachusetts Dental Society awarded more than $8,000 to the Commonwealth's three dental schools during the society's four-day educational meeting in Boston in January.

Tufts University School of Dental Medicine received the largest grant totaling $4,800. Boston University's School of Graduate Dentistry received $2,400 and Harvard School of Dental Medicine received $1,000.

The grants, which are presented annually, are apportioned on the basis of Massachusetts student enrollment in each of the schools and provide scholarship aid to Massachusetts students.

Kitchen Design

David A. Clement, designer

The look of the country kitchen definitely predates plastic. As a result you will want natural elements incorporated into your kitchen design. A cozy fieldstone fireplace creates a homey atmosphere that is so sought after in country kitchens. Natural wood beams in the ceiling and paneling on the walls add rustic charm. Cabinetry can be lightly stained so as not to overly darken a smaller kitchen. The best colors for country styling are deep, rich berry colors such as blue, burgundy and plum. Finish off the country look with sparkling brass, copper, pewter and iron accents.

There is no doubt about it: only a country kitchen will add the warmth and homey atmosphere of days long ago. You too can achieve the same atmosphere in your kitchen when it is designed by the professionals at WINDSOR KITCHENS. Our experts will design your kitchen, bath or dining area with the finest materials and workmanship. We'll be there to help you every step of the way. Call today for a free estimate. 1-800-344-4444.

HANDY HINT:

The country kitchen exudes more warmth than any other design type.

Warrior Boy Skiers Drop From First

The Warrior boys lost a close battle for first place in the North Shore Ski League against Haverhill 66-54. The icy conditions resulted in six of the top 12 skiers falling. Despite capturing second (Christer Mattson) and third (Rob Carpentier) place, the Warriors could not make up the lost ground.

The boys had two ties in a tri-meet on Monday versus Austin Prep and Masconomet. Top point scorers were Mattson (second), Carpentier (first) and Rob Teichert (fifth). These two unexpected ties create a real close battle for first and second place in the league as well as qualifying for the state tournament. Andover's record is 6-2-2 and a win Thursday versus highly regarded St. John's Prep would assure them of at least a second-place finish.

Indoor Booters Back On Track

By She Livermore

Andover's boys' team, which plays in the High School Indoor Soccer League in Saugus every weekend, ran into stiff competition for three successive weeks and suffered defeat on each occasion. Last weekend they got back on the winning track, defeating a team from Hampton, N.H., 3-0. Their record is now 3-0-4.

On January 14, Andover played against a team from Wakefield who were very aggressive. Andover took an early lead when David Keene scored. Shortly afterwards a key player was ejected and Andover was forced to play five against six for the rest of the contest (ironically, at the conclusion of the game, the referee revoked the red card but it was too late for Andover). Wakefield tied it up near the end of the first half and then added three more in the second to win a 4-0 victory. Brian Sheehy guarded Andover's net in the first half and John Drake took over in the second half.

On January 21, Andover faced the Internationals, always a strong entry in the league. Several players were missing from the lineup but Andover took the lead when Paul Hevehan scored on a fine pass from David Keene. The Internationals tied it up and the half ended 1-1. Early in the second half, the Internationals scored to make it 2-1 and followed that with one more before the final whistle to win a 3-1 victory. Goalkeeper Sheehy did an outstanding job, repeatedly rejecting the Internationals' bid to increase their margin of victory.

With only eight players on hand, Andover played Lynn on January 28. Nicky Bates put Andover in the lead when he made a nice shot off a pass from Keene, with five seconds to go in the half. Lynn tied it up. In the second half Lynn scored on a direct kick and then added another two win 3-1.

Last weekend, with a full roster on hand, Andover played Royal Park, a team from Hampton, N.H., who were shorthanded. Andover took the lead towards the end of the first half when goalkeeper Sheehy threw the ball to Hevehan who controlled it and passed it forward to Keene. Keene travelled with it and made a nice shot from the right side into the left corner of the net. Midway through the second half, Barry Tucker made a moving pass to Scott Wilkins who kicked the ball into the net for a 2-0 lead. Tucker and Wilkins combined again but the goal was disallowed. Hevehan finished Andover's scoring on a pass from Hai Dang for a 3-0 victory.

Andover's next game will be against St. John's on February 18 at 6:20 p.m. They play the Cougars on February 25 at 5:20 p.m.

Hoop Shoot At College

Registration begins at 9 a.m. and the contest will start at approximately 9:30 a.m.

Contestants will be made up of the winners of the local lodge contests from Andover, Lawrence, Haverhill, Newburyport, Lowell, Wakefield, Woburn.

Tewksbury-Wilmington, Billerica, Chelmsford and Winchester.

The winners of the district contest will advance to the state finals at Boston University on Saturday, March 3.

The state winners go to Sturbridge on March 31 for the regional finals. These winners and their parents will go to the national contest in Indianapolis, Indiana, on May 4, 5 and 6 as guests of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks.

Doyle, a runner himself, will answer any questions concerning footwear and offer suggestions to improve running.

Fast women was designed to encourage and support women who run. The meetings will always be held at the North Andover Y.M.C.A.

Badminton Tourney In Haverhill

Cedardale, Haverhill, is host once again to one of the most prestigious badminton tournaments in the country Feb. 10-12 when more than 100 top players from the U.S. and Canada will compete for more than $3,000 in prize money. Six of the U.S. team will battle it out in a final preparation for the World Cup in Toronto at the end of the month. Matt Fogarty is the only Massachusetts member of that team who will take on Japan, Canada and Taiwan.

Badminton is the second largest participant sport, after soccer, in the world and the fastest racquet sport with the "birdies" hit at speeds of up to 200 mph.

Finals will be held Sunday, Feb. 12, from 12 p.m. to 5 p.m. Tickets include a chance at door prizes. There will be a Celebrity Challenge between WMJX and Barry Nolan of "Evening Magazine."

Bird Census

If you find yourself eye to eye with a cardinal, a mockingbird or a tufted titmouse over the weekend of February 11-12, the Massachusetts Audubon Society would like to know about it. Birds of these species appearing at backyard feeders in New England will be counted as part of the society's annual census.

Mockingbirds, cardinals and titmice are usually found in southern climates. Recently cardinals and mockingbirds became year-round residents of New England. In the past, few titmice entered this region; however, since 1957 the numbers of cardinals and tufted titmice have increased sharply and the number of mockingbirds has almost doubled over the last several years. The population shift to the Northeast by these birds has been explained by the popularity of backyard feeders, the planting of fruit-bearing trees in suburban areas and the warming trend in the region's climate.

Male cardinals are bright red and females are a warm orange-brown with a red bill. Tufted titmice are all grey, and both titmice and cardinals have crests. Mockingbirds are grey, robin-sized birds with long tails edged in white. They flash prominent white wing spots when they fly.

To participate in the bird count, send a large self-addressed, stamped envelope or call Census-Massachusetts Audubon Society, Lincoln, MA 01773 for an official census card.

Golden Warrior Track Team Still Perfect

By Dan Grams

The Andover High School Golden Warrior track team continued their dominance in the Merrimack Valley last week with an impressive 45-41 come-from-behind victory over previously unbeaten Chelmsford High School. The win upped the running Warriors record to 6-0, while the Chelmsford Lions dropped to 5-1.

The victory puts the Golden Warriors in sole possession of first place with only two dual meets remaining. Billerica and Methuen are the only two obstacles in the Golden Warriors' path for a perfect dual meet season.

A small crowd of loyal Andover and Chelmsford fans gathered at the Ray Riddick Field House in Lowell to take in what many local sports fans billed as the meet which would decide the Merrimack Valley Indoor Track season champion.

The meet showcased two very talented groups of athletes with neither side having a visible advantage over the other. The Andover quartet of Zack Apgar, Mark Grams, Peter Comeau and Larry Cuddy held off a strong Chelmsford relay squad, giving Andover the 45-41 victory. Both teams gave everything they had, but it was the Golden Warriors who had that little extra.

The Golden Warriors built up an early 22-14 lead with Keith Driscoll (hurdles), Apgar (50 dash), Ian Dowe (shotput) and Rick Dow (2 mile) turning in winning performances. Bobby Stabile (hurdles) and Dowe (50 dash) grabbed third-place finishes.

Chelmsford hung tough taking several second and third place finishes in these early events to avoid an early Andover blowout.

Thanks to their superior depth, Chelmsford was able to stay close to Andover with its best events coming up.

Chelmsford's Billy Campbell got the Lion rally going with a first-place finish in the 300 with a time of 33.5. Andover's Grams came in right behind to capture second.

Cuddy, who has yet to be beaten in a 600 in dual meets, continued his dominance in a 1:21.2 first-place finish with Comeau a close second.

Andover had built their lead to 33-21, but the tables were turning on the Golden Warriors.

Chelmsford captured first place in the 1000 and mile to close the margin to 39-33 with the high jump and mile relay left to be decided. Chelmsford appeared to be in the driver's seat.

The Andover high jumpers had had troubles meeting opening qualifying height all year. Few expected them to even challenge Chelmsford in this event, but the high-jumping crew of Apgar, Driscoll and sophomore Andy Thompson were equal to the task, each clearing 6'0."

Thompson was the only Golden Warrior to place in this event, but the outstanding performances of this Golden Warrior trio seemed to do two things: first, it tired out tow of the Lion high jumpers who also run in the mile relay and two, it gave Andover a much-needed shot in the arm going into the mile relay.

The inspiring high jump performance by Andover carried over to the mile relay with the outstanding mile relay team of Apgar, Grams, Comeau and Cuddy breaking the tape ahead of Chelmsford, giving the Golden Warriors a well deserved 45-41 victory.

The winning relay time of 3:37 narrowly missed the Andover High School indoor track record which the quartet of Apgar, Grams, Comeau and Cuddy set earlier this year.

50's Dance

Andover ABC will have a "Fifties Dance" on March 9 featuring Joe Martel from WROR. It will be held at the Sheraton Rolling Green Ballroom from 8:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m.

The Golden Warriors took their show on the road Saturday to Boston University and again were impressive. Andover, which earlier this season captured the Methuen Invitational, were stripped from the Mass. state relay championship after a questionable disqualification for a lane violation.

Apgar, Comeau, Grams and Ian Dowe took first place in the 4x200 relay with a winning time of 1:33.3. The spring relay team of Cuddy, Tony Holbrook, Dave Casanave and Apgar placed fourth with a 3:41.5 clocking. The 4x800 relay (Rick Dow, John Yeszski, Rob Salisbury and Richard Burke) and the shotput relay (Dow, Bob Scanlon and Bobby Stable) also placed for Andover.

The 4x400 meter relay team of Cuddy, Comeau, Grams and Driscoll combined to streak to what appeared to be first-place finish of 3:27.5, giving Andover the Mass State title, but it was later ruled that one of the runners had stepped out of his lane. The disqualification was a costly one for Andover for it resulted in a three-place difference, giving Needham the championship.

The Golden Warriors continue their busy schedule with a dual meet with Billerica. On Saturday they will visit Harvard for the Massachusetts State Meet.

Girls Intermediate Basketball

By Kim Kupa

In the last week of regular girls' Intermediate Church League Basketball play before entering three weeks of championship playoffs, St. Augustine's A came out on top again, remaining undefeated after a 17-11 decision against St. Robert's B. St. Robert's C rolled to a conquest over St. Augustine's C 24-16, Ballardvale United overpowered Christ Church 22-0 and St. Robert's A nipped St. Augustine's B 12-5.

St. Augustine's A, 17-11

Although St. Robert's B was missing two key players, Susan Boush, league high marksman with 51 points, and Melanie Danner, another strong shooter, they held St. Augustine's A to a one-point lead for two quarters. At the end of the first stanza, the score stood at 3-2. April Williams collected three of her 11 points in the first quarter for St. Augustine's A while Nina Sheel led St. Robert's counter-attack, netting two of her four points.

St. Augustine's was ahead in the half 5-4 due to a basket by Andie Harris while Shaleen Cassily contributed two of her seven points to cut the victor's advantage.

St. Augustine's exploded in the second half under the hot shooting of Williams with four buckets and Colleen Miskell and Lisa Bruno with one apiece. Hustling efforts under the boards were added by defensive leaders Liz Wyatt, Debbie Donovan, Susan Garabedian, Diane Hinchey and Tricia Novel-line.

St. Robert's was outpointed in the second half 12-7, but put up a valiant fight. The solid defensive efforts of Kim Hein, Tara Coccozza, Nicole Kelley, Lynn Baker and Michelle DiStefano made the victors work for the win.

St. Robert's C, 24-16

St. Robert's C, minus the rebounding and scoring talents of Jacqueline Kupa, toppled St. Augustine's C. They held the lead from the start, outscoring the rivals 8-2 with two baskets from Joanne McNamara, one from Elizabeth Wrobel and the conversion of two foul shots by Kimberly Davis.

Jennifer Scarpone contributed the sole first quarter St. Augustine's basket.

By the end of the third quarter St. Robert's had increased the advantage to 15 points under the deadly shooting of McNamara, who popped in 10 points, Elizabeth Wrobel delivering 8, Julie Newman chipping in a free throw and Kimberly Davis hitting two free throws for two points.

St. Augustine's erupted in the fourth quarter, gaining 10 points. Maureen Morrow and Jennifer Scarpone combined talents to lead the late surge with Scarpone tying McNamara for game-high honors with 10 points, eight pocketed in the final stanza, while Morrow collected 6 points, two in the fourth quarter.

The final St. Robert's attack was led by Shelia Camillus with a basket and Grace Perry, who notched a charity toss. For the winners Diane Castignoli secured rebounds and Stephanie Kupa and Gretchen Weitz contributed outstanding floor games.

Karen Brocklesby, Yesmeen Kattes, Stacey Reilly, Sarah Skelton and Kelley Walsh rounded out St. Augustine's C's defense.

Ballardvale United, 22-0

Ballardvale rushed to a shutout over Christ Church, netting an unbelievable 22 unanswered points. Ballardvale put the game away in the first half, bolting to a 10-0 advantage.

Although Christ Church held the victors pointless in the second quarter, their efforts weren't enough to stop the sharp shooting combination of Jodi Langro with 12 points, a personal season record, Kim Lowe 8 points, six in the first period, and Kim Nutter swishing a hoop in the third quarter.

Possessing a definite height advantage, Ballardvale's floor game was led by Lisa Campbell, Erin Lynch, Nicole Ricci, Lisa Hayes and Jennifer Price.

Christ Church hung tough as Keri Lynch, Leslie Wilkinson, Lisa Allen, Beth Robinson and Liz Hanson led the defensive attack.

SAA led 4-0, 8-2 and 10-3 at the first three check points.

John Shea powered the St. A's attack with 6 points. Jamey Lionette chipped in 4, Brian Landry, Anthony Russo and Chris Zappala added 2 points each.

Kara Slavin tossed home a bucket, Dawn Bernard netted 2 points and Monica Davis hooped two of her four points in the second quarter. Other points were added by Julie Grzybinski, dunking two baskets to seal the win.

Church League Race Torrid

By Rick Harrison

St. Robert's B and St. Augustine's A continued their torrid struggle for supremacy of the Andover Church Basketball League Intermediate Gold Division while four-time defending champ West Parish eked out a dramatic double-overtime win on Chris Kew's clutch basket, highlighting last week's action at the West Elementary gym.

St. Robert's B (6-0) remained undefeated with a 42-10 triumph over intra-church rival St. Robert's A, while St. Augustine's A (5-1) dealt St. Robert's A a 30-17 setback.

West Parish (3-3) tied South A (3-3) for third place, avenging a season-opening 37-36 single overtime loss with last week's 31-29 double-OT thriller. Paul DeMarco of SRB and John Russell of St. Augustine's failed to break their tie for first place in the division's individual scoring race as both emerged from last week's action with 70 total points. Pat Kelley of West Parish is next in line with 55 and Chris Eggert of South has 52.

West Parish, 31-29 (2ot)

The score was tied 27-27 after regulation and in the first overtime West Parish hero Chris Kew hit a basket to counter single free throws by Scott Clementi and Doug Howes.

The rivals then entered sudden-death (first point wins) locked in a 29-29 struggle and Kew finally ended the marathon by wishing a 12-foot shot from the corner.

South A inched ahead 7-5 in the first period, it was 13-13 at halftime. West led 20-17 after three quarters and South battled back to the 27-27 tie as Chris Eggert converted six free throws and one fieldgoal to spark the late rally.

Stefan Kelly led the West Parish offense with 11 points, while Kew contributed 6, Pat Kelley 5 in the second half. John Glynn 4, Chris Lane 3 and Chris Gray 2.

Mike Pierro, Keith Abernathy and Craig DerAnanian also played well for the winners.

Eggert was game-high for south A with 15 points, Doug Howes pocketed 5, Steve Flanders 3, Scott Clementi 3, Dana Orlando 2 and A.J. Boutin a free throw.

If these features seem a bit generous to you for a $12,980* German sports sedan, you're right.

Audi When a car comes with no less than 38 standard features and is priced under $13,000, you have to call it a great value.

So, it should come as no surprise that the Audi 4000S is the best selling German sports sedan in Germany you can buy in America.

Of course, there are other reasons why Germans are driven to buy the 4000S. Germans demand that a sports sedan accelerate with the spirit of a racing car.

They insist that a sports sedan have a suspension that tames even the toughest roads.

And they're absolutely adamant that a sports sedan cruise comfortably at over 100 miles per hour on the Autobahn.

Now, if you think all of this adds up to a sports sedan you'll want to test drive, you're right.

Again.

Church League

Dan Ferris, Jim Hendry and Matt Orlando also played well for South A. The game was punctuated by 51 personal fouls, 33 of them on West Parish which finished the game with Kelley, Kelly and Abernathy on the sidelines (five fouls).

South hit 12-of-39 at the free throw line, while West was 5-for-23 at the charity stripe.

St. Augustine's A, 30-17

St. Robert's A played by far its best game of the season, but St. Augustine's A pulled away steadily over the last three periods to register the victory.

The teams were tied 6-6 after one quarter, but identical 6-2 scoring advantages for SAA in the middle two stanzas put them safely ahead.

John Russell led seven St. Augustine's A players into the point column with 12, easily capturing game high laurels.

Erik Guzowski, Pat Finn and Steffan Tomlinson chipped in 4 points each, Scott Lanouette 2, Peter Caruso 2 and Sean Ryan 2. Jeff Hurley also played well for the victors.

Maro Selvitelli collected his five points in the fourth period for St. Robert's A, while Brett Hammond notched his 4 in the opening session. Eric Hammond, Paul Salafia, Ryan Bean and Joe Iarrobino tossed in 2 points each for SRA. Steve Knight and Mike Talty added hustling defensive efforts.

Peugeot reinvents the big wagon

There is a definite pattern of better weather during maximum sun-spot activity, even the quality of wine vintage is considered superior during these times.

It's bigger than the best-selling imported or American wagons.

With its back seat up, it holds even more than the hold-over dinosaurs from Detroit.

Yet—here's a pleasant surprise—this is one big wagon that is designed not to wag its tail clumsily from side to side on the highway. The Peugeot 505 GL wagon. Huge inside. Not too huge outside. A wagon with the road handling of a European sedan. We've got it. Come and try it.

St. Robert's B, 42-10

Paul DeMarco and Mike Smith combined for 23 points, sparking St. Robert's B to its convincing triumph over St. Robert's C.

DeMarco was game-high sharpshooter with 12 points, eight of them in the first half, while Smith swished his 11 points in the third quarter. James Spinelli pocketed 7 points and James Murphy 6 for SRB, which blew the contest wide open with an 18-2 third-quarter explosion.

Shawsheen

total $274,856, compared to $221,023 for the center.

Superintendent Kenneth Seifert said the early childhood center alternative would prove the "least disruptive" to students and families if the school population changes and redistricting becomes necessary in the future. (Early childhood students moved into Shawsheen would be leaving the school at the end of their kindergarten year anyway, he explained; students in higher grades in a K-6 school might have to be moved out in the middle of their elementary years.)

The superintendent added that he believed the center was also "first and foremost in the best educational interests of the students of the town of Andover."

Some parents criticized the plans because they did not address the consistency-of-services problems at South — and did not provide a long-term solution to Andover's changing elementary school population. Parents called the early childhood center a "band-aid solution" and a "stop-gap measure," predicting that redistricting — and perhaps a new school — are future inevitabilities.

Other parents worried about long bus rides for children coming from distant districts, and doubted the administration's estimates that no ride would exceed 30 minutes.

Some parents were also concerned about the idea of kindergarteners going to Shawsheen instead of their neighborhood schools, where they could become familiar with their future elementary schools and attend the same schools as older siblings. Others questioned the wisdom of placing readiness students in the Shawsheen with kindergarteners, separating them from their peers in the first grade.

But other parents supported the early childhood plan, calling it "innovative," "progressive" and "the best solution for the immediate future."

Committee member Poore said she opposed the plan because it did not address some existing needs, including overcrowding at South and what she called an increasing elementary school population.

The lack of time the committee has spent addressing long- and short-term needs in my two years on the committee concerns me," she said. The committee should address both the long- and short-term needs at South School in particular. Poore maintained: "To do nothing is patently wrong of this committee."

But Michael Giammusso said an early childhood center was the "best solution," and called it "an exciting possibility and a concept that has a lot of potential." He said the center would alleviate some overcrowding, avoid "very large disruptions" — and provide "flexibility for the future, innovation and excitement."

Solving South's overcrowding — whether by moving out the fifth and sixth grades or building a new addition to the school — would have to be addressed "independent of tonight's decision," Giammusso said.

Robert Smith agreed that the center would be "best for the total system," and would "give the committee the flexibility it needs to move down the road" without redistricting next year.

The committee will now include the cost of opening Shawsheen as an early childhood education center in its fiscal 1985 budget. School budget discussions will resume next Tuesday night at the Shawsheen.

Business Manager Is Praised, Rewarded

Business Manager Francis Paul garnered praise and a raise from the School Committee this week.

The committee Tuesday night voted unanimously (with Donald Robb absent) to boost Paul's salary to $40,000, effective Feb. 1. The business manager's salary was raised to $37,538 in July, when all non-union school employees (mainly administrators) won a five-percent increase.

Committeeman Michael Giammusso, who moved to increase Paul's salary, said the manager has been doing a "fine job" and has given "extra effort" in his duties, particularly in preparing the annual school budget and working with the town manager.

Robert Smith noted that following budget cuts in the business office staff, Paul has assumed a lot of duties "that were not originally his. Chairman Richard Neal said the department was "most fortunate" to have Paul's services and added that Paul has been "instrumental" in making "cost-effective" changes in the school system.

The business manager, who was hired in June 1981, thanked the committee members and commented that new budgetary challenges are still ahead for the school department.

offset newspaper in the country.

The School Committee on a three to one vote has voted to name the auditorium in the High School Punchard Auditorium and to place the seal of the Punchard trustees on the diplomas. Member William A. Doherty was opposed to the move. Mr. Doherty felt that if the auditorium was renamed there would be much confusion among the townspeople as to where events were being held. Actually the auditorium in the Junior High is known as Memorial Auditorium, but is popularly known as Punchard Auditorium, Mr. Doherty stated.

10 Years Ago — February 1974

Riding an austerity theme and wielding a sharp knife, the selectmen pared the general town budget by $133,215 during a work session in the town house Tuesday night. Falling in the austerity move was an account, "out-of-state travel," which means no attendance at conferences for local administrators this year, unless they are held within the state, or nearby New England states.

The Andover School Committee Tuesday night approved an $8,321,000 budget for 1974-75, which falls somewhere between the Committee's previous bottom guidelines and what the administration said is needed to maintain current services. The compromise figure, which includes $1,715,352 for expenses and $6,605,648 for salaries, is still expected not to increase the school's portion of the tax rate. It may, in fact, reduce taxes a little.

Even in the best of times, the Sahara Desert creeps steadily into Senegal's Fleuve region, a dry area along the West African nation's border with Mauritania. During the past year, severe drought and famine decimated sub-Saharan Africa — and brought the desert even further into the Fleuve. Since June, 1972, Peace Corps volunteer Edmund J. Sullivan, III, of Andover has been a witness to the devastation. But, as a rural community development worker, he is doing something to help — by mobilizing villagers to attack their water supply, food production, health and sanitation problems.

Therapist To Address Stroke Club

The Lawrence Easter Seal Stroke Club will hold its monthly meeting in the community conference room of the Massachusetts Easter Seal Society (rear of United Cerebral Palsy) Northeast Regional Office, 20 Ballard Road, Lawrence, on Tuesday, Feb. 14, at 2:15 p.m.

Andrea Rosebach, Easter Seal physical therapist, will speak on "Stroke and Physical Therapy-Exercises and Ambulation." New guests and friends are invited. Refreshments and conversation will follow the program.

The purpose of the club is to provide stroke disabled people and their families and friends with information and counseling aimed at easing apprehensions about the disability and to create a social environment in which the participant can become involved.

Stroke is a disability which affects people of all ages, particularly those in their 60s. Most often it leaves the individual with some physical and speech disability. Recovery from the effects of stroke can be as difficult an experience as a stroke itself. Easter Seal can help through a support program.

Further information can be obtained by calling the Easter Seal Society.

DON'T UNDERESTIMATE BUYER

In the arena of real estate transactions, there are two parties to every transaction: a buyer and seller. Some sellers have the mistaken impression that they are at a financial advantage when negotiating directly with a prospective buyer. Unfortunately, they could be more mistaken.

Never underestimate the hard financial bargaining ability of the average buyer. Spend one day in the field with any Realtor, negotiating and handling offers and counter offers and you'll appreciate what I'm saying. Frankly, if the typical buyer knows you are not selling through a Realtor, right off the bat he'll expect you to deduct the commission for HIS benefit before you even START serious negotiations.

That you're on your own, possibly at a great disadvantage, is the one great advantage of negotiating, and protecting yourself from all sorts of "do it yourself" pitfalls. You've got a lot invested in your home. It makes sense to list it with a Realtor. He'll get it for you, without hitches, for the best price and in the shortest amount of time.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at THE HOWE AGENCY, 4 Pynchard Ave., Andover. Phone: 475-5100. We're here to help.

Andover Townsman

Dire Need

pumping eight million gallons a day would cost at least $1 million, he explained.

The station had a similar failure about a year ago, and more serious problems may be ahead, McQuade said. "We cannot continue any further with this station," he told the selectmen. "There is no other way but going to town meeting for money."

Byrne agreed, saying town officials should seek "town meeting authority" this year to build the station. The board did not vote on supporting the proposed warrant articles, but will discuss the articles further during a meeting next Monday night.

It may become necessary for Andover to place a moratorium on new industrial and commercial development in the town, the director said. Mahony indicated that no decisions have been made on that idea — and that in any case, a moratorium would include only the south part of town, and not the West Andover industrial district, which is now on the verge of a building boom.

McQuade also reviewed the proposed $3.5 million fiscal '85 public works budget with the selectmen Monday night.

Charges for the services of the Greater Lawrence Sanitary District will rise from a current $385,000 to $504,770, he said. The cost of solid waste disposal will also rise, possibly to $469,500 or higher from a current $384,200. (The town of Reading recently saw its solid waste disposal costs increase by 52 percent, McQuade noted.)

The town manager has proposed increasing both water and sewer rates by ten percent this year; Selectman Byrne indicated that he would like to discuss that further at a future meeting. The increase would make the water department self-sustaining, Mahony said. He called Andover's water rates "a bargain, among the lowest in the area for high-quality water".

One of the most difficult cuts he has proposed this year is in the DPW's highway department, the manager said: Road repair funds have been cut by 25 percent. However, McQuade said town meeting will be asked to approve special articles for improvements to parts of Ballardvale Road and High Plain Road. The state would reimburse the town for that work with Chapter 90 funds.

Other special articles the DPW director would like to see approved: funding for a new reservoir at the water treatment plant, and a new water distribution tank on Wood Hill.

In warm weather President John Quincy Adams liked to swim in the Potomac River.
